

Terms and Conditions

Please read these terms carefully before using this website ("Site"). Your use of this Site constitutes acceptance of these terms and conditions, which take effect on the first day of use of this Site.

National Care Association reserves the right to change these terms and conditions by posting the changes online. Your continued use of this Site after changes are posted constitutes your acceptance of this agreement as modified.

You agree to use this Site only for lawful purposes, and in a manner which does not infringe the rights of, restrict, or inhibit the use and enjoyment of this Site by any third party. Such restriction and inhibition includes, without limitation, conduct which is unlawful or which may harass or cause distress or inconvenience to any person, the transmission of obscene or offensive material or disruption of normal flow of dialogue within this Site.

Unless otherwise requested, by posting messages on any National Care Association discussion board you are granting a license to National Care Association to reproduce these comments on any other part of the Site and in any other publications.

Where you are able to submit any contribution to this Site you agree, by submitting your contribution, to grant National Care Association a perpetual, royalty-free, non-exclusive, sub-licenseable right and license to use, reproduce, modify, adapt, publish, translate, create derivative works from, distribute, perform, play, and exercise all copyright and publicity rights with respect to your contribution worldwide and/or to incorporate your contribution in other works in any media now known or later developed for the full term of any rights that may exist in your contribution. If you do not want to grant National Care Association the rights set out above, please do not submit your contribution to National Care Association.

By submitting your contribution to National Care Association you warrant that your contribution is your own original work and that you have the right to make it available to National Care Association for any or all of the purposes specified above. Furthermore, you warrant your contribution is not defamatory, does not infringe any law, you indemnify National Care Association against all legal fees, damages and other expenses that may be incurred by National Care Association as a result of your breach of the above warranty and waive any moral rights in your contribution for the purposes of its submission to and publication on the Site and the purposes specified above.

National Care Association has the right to remove any material or posting you make on this Site at its discretion.

If these Terms and Conditions are not accepted in full, the use of this Site must be terminated immediately.

These Terms and Conditions shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales. Any disputes arising here shall be exclusively subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.
